THE
WASHINGTON COURT OF CHANCERY

IN THE COURT OF CHANCERY

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, I, JOHN W. WHEAT, Clerk of the said Court, do hereby certify that the within and foregoing is a true and correct copy of the original of the same, as the same appears from the records of the said Court.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of the said Court, at the City of Washington, this 10th day of May, 1858.

TO THE NOBILITY, GENTRY, &c.

P. BOYLE cannot omit this opportunity of returning his most grateful acknowledgement to the Nobility and Gentry, through the medium of whose Patronage he is enabled to present them with a new edition of the Court Guide, with the alteration of near 3000 names, who changed their residence since the last year; as such he hopes this will be found much more accurate and ample, than any of the former editions; and as it has been his constant study to merit a continuance of their Indulgence, he takes the liberty of informing them, that he has opened an Office, No. 107, Wardour-street, Soho, for the more convenient accommodation of the Nobility and Gentry.

His Office is instituted for the express purpose of buying, selling, and letting Estates, Lands, Houses and Lodgings furnished or unfurnished, also for the disposal and purchase of Reversions, Annuities, Life-Interests by private contract, as well as the Negotiations of Mortgages, &c. &c.---The orders of families, lady or Gentleman, intending to come to London for any space of time, may, by letter to the said Office, descriptive of the part of the town wherein they wish to reside, reside, the number of apartments required, or other conveniencies wanted, with the rent they wish to pay, will be immediately and punctually provided with such Houses or Lodgings Furnished or Unfurnished, and the earliest information transmitted to them; to prevent the tedious and expensive delays at hotels in town, before a proper accommodation is provided for them; the business to be effected, whether to buy, sell, let, or rent Estates, Lands, Houses and Chambers, &c. or accomplish any other purpose within the limits of this plan: Boyle, in order to give that satisfaction required, will himself inspect all such houses, apartments or other accommodations at the request of the taker, he having also engaged some of the most respectable Surveyors, Auctioneers, and sworn Appraisers in London, for the better accommodation of those who wish to let or take; and begs to inform them, that tho' he is assisted with the best secondary aid, he vigorously superintends each department himself, and will attend with the surveyors, &c. on any lady or gentleman, to give their opinions and advice.

Estates, Household Furniture, &c. either in town or country, carefully Surveyed, Valued, Appraised, or Sold by Auction at a reasonable commission; also Rents Collected and sureties given, if required, for any trust reposed.

Families' town residences punctually attended to during their country Retirement, with strict attention paid to all orders, either for repairs or otherwise.

N. B. For the better accomodation of those coming to town, or otherwise, Boyle has opened a register book at his Office, for providing such with Men Servants only, both both in and out of Livery, who must have at least twelve months character from their last place before registered by him; and, in order that it may be more clear no money will be required from any servant for such register; to prevent mistakes or imposition minute enquiries will be made, and also will be inserted in said book their names, country, age, with whom and in what capacity they last lived; directions as above will be forwarded to the party requiring such servant, in a printed letter signed P. Boyle.

As it would be almost impossible to enumerate the several subjects which are so diversified, as the wants and wishes of mankind: The following heads however may serve as a general index to the business transacted at the said office in addition to the before-mentioned.
